

$12,700 raised for Food Banks Canada at FCPC's 7th Annual Charity Golf Tournament

Monday, June 17, 2019

Food & Consumer Products of Canada (FCPC), its members, supporters and industry leaders are proud to announce that the 7th Annual Charity Golf Tournament raised a total of $12,700, in support of Food Banks Canada.

This brings FCPC's combined giving since 2013 to over $107,536 which equates to over 322,608 meals.

(l-r Brendan Ennis, Director of Development, Food Banks Canada; Michael Graydon, Chief Executive Officer at FCPC, Carolina Macia, Senior Manager, Business Development, Food Banks Canada, and Jamie Moody, President, Tree of Life Canada)

FCPC's 7th annual Charity Golf Tournament on was a tremendous success! We were very pleased to present Food Banks Canada with an outstanding donation of $12,700 as the proceeds of this year's tournament. This donation raises our combined giving since 2013 to over $107,536 with the support of our members, which translates to over 322,608 meals!!

Canadians visited food banks 1.1 million times in March 2018. The impact of our industry donations helps Food Banks to take action to create a Canada where no one goes hungry. Click here to view a short Food Banks video. Thank you to everyone who participated and supported this tremendous charity!